

Ada E. Miller

10-31-90

Ada E. Miller, 85, Groton, died October 3, 1990 at St. Luke's Midland Regional Medical Center.

Services were held Saturday, Oct. 6, 1990 at Wesleyan Church, Aberdeen, with the Rev. Jerry Aramowicz officiating. Burial followed at Riverside Memorial Park, Aberdeen, under the direction of Miller-Huebl Funeral Home.

Ada E. Miller was born November 2, 1904 at Logan Township in Potter County near Tolstoy, S.D., to Curtis and Magdalena (Nold) Keller. She attended country school and high school at Tolstoy. She worked on the family farm until she was united in marriage to George E. Miller on August 9, 1934 at her parents farm at Logan Township in Potter County near Tolstoy. They farmed at Onaka, S.D., for a short time and then moved to Putney Township near Groton, and farmed until their retirement in 1973. They continued to live on the farm.

Survivors include her husband, George E., Groton; two daughters Mrs. Donald (Mildred) Steward, Chelsea and Mrs. Douglas (Arlis) Harms, Groton; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, and two great-grandchildren.

She was a member of the Wesleyan Church and the Wesleyan Women International. She was a 4-H club leader for the Putney 4-H girls for many years. She was active in Extension Homemakers and received her 50 years Certificate of Recognition at Brookings in 1988. She was active for 52 years. She was also a member of the Putney Ladies Aid at Putney.

The organist was Cindy Aramowicz and the soloists were Sharon Maynard and Patty Harms.

Honorary casketbearers were all of her friends.

Active casketbearers were Lowell Harms, Craig Harms, Daryl Steward, Allan Steward, Verlyn Steward, and Jerroll Erdmann.

Ushers were Floyd Orth and Ray Hughes.